ARTICLE I General Authority

Section 1.00 PREAMBLE AND AUTHORITY

The Republican Party of San Diego County hereby adopts these bylaws which include rules for the composition of the Republican Central Committee (“the Committee”), the election of its officers, and the management and operation of the Party.

These bylaws shall constitute the sole and exclusive governing rules of the Committee, a private association which is dedicated to the purposes of endorsing and electing members of the Republican Party to federal, state and local public offices.

Section 1.01 GOVERNING BODIES

The Committee consists of the membership meeting in full several times each year, the Executive Committee, and the executive direction of the elected officers as provided more particularly in these bylaws.

Section 1.02 ROLE AND RELATIONSHIP TO THE STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE

The Committee is the official organization of the Republican Party in the County of San Diego, and exercises general direction over the Republican election campaign for Republican endorsed candidates in the County. The Committee’s mission is to support the election of Republican candidates to office.

Section 1.03 DEFINITION OF ASSEMBLY DISTRICT FOR THE 2023-2024 TERM ONLY

Due to the 4-year term of electing members to the Committee, which occurred in 2020, and the 2020 redistricting process which changed Assembly District lines in the middle of members’ terms, and since this oddity will not occur again until the 2040-2044 term, the meaning of Assembly District in these bylaws shall refer to the original Assembly Districts in which members were originally elected in 2020 for the 2023-2024 term of these bylaws. This section shall be removed in the bylaws for the 2025-2026 bylaws.
